With your help, Catholic Charities creates hope for New Yorkers in need.

our mission

The Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York seeks to uphold the dignity of each person as made in the image of God by serving the basic needs of the poor, troubled, frail and oppressed of all religions. We collaborate with parishes, as well as non-Catholic and Catholic partners, to build a compassionate and just society. Through a network of administered, sponsored and affiliated agencies, Catholic Charities delivers, coordinates, and advocates for quality human services and programs touching almost every human need.

our vision

Catholic Charities helps solve the problems of New Yorkers in need—non-Catholics and Catholics alike. The neglected child, the homeless family, and the hungry senior are among those for whom we provide help and create hope. We rebuild lives and touch almost every human need promptly, locally, day in and day out, always with compassion and dignity. We help your neighbors as you would like to be helped if your family were in need.

To conserve maximum funding for those in need, this annual report was produced in a two-color design.

A Letter from His Eminence Edward Cardinal Egan

Dear Friends in the Lord:

It is with deep gratitude that I look back on my nine years as Archbishop of New York. Permit me to ask you to join me in welcoming His Excellency, the Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan, as our new Archbishop.

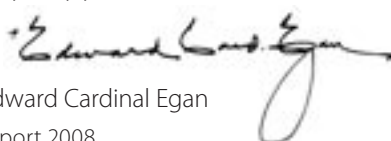

For nearly a century, Catholic Charities has provided assistance and given hope to so many, including individuals and families; the hungry, the homeless, the disabled, and the newcomers to our shores. How proud I am of all that Catholic Charities has accomplished.

As one can imagine, more people than ever have turned to Catholic Charities this past year as a result of the extraordinarily difficult economic challenges that we as a city, state and nation are facing. In the midst of all this, Catholic Charities has remained a bastion of support and inspiration even to many who in the past had given generously to its various appeals and now find themselves in need. Where we would be without Catholic Charities is something that I hope we never have to consider.

This annual report presents lives that have been changed by Catholic Charities throughout the New York City boroughs of Staten Island, Manhattan, and the Bronx, as well as the counties of the Hudson Valley. Permit me to invite and even encourage you to learn more about and become more involved with the crucially important activities and undertakings of Catholic Charities. You will be doing the work of the Lord, and in doing so receive His choicest blessings.

With prayerful best wishes, may I remain.

Very truly yours in Christ,

Edward Cardinal Egan

A Letter from Archbishop Timothy M. Dolan

My Dear New Friends in Christ:

With humble gratitude, I thank Pope Benedict XVI for my appointment as Archbishop of New York. To all of you throughout this magnificent archdiocese, I pledge to you my love, my life, and my heart.

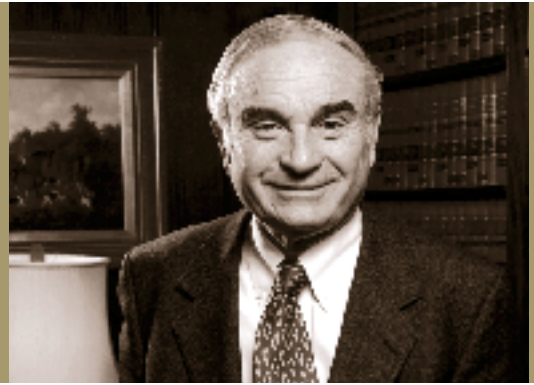

It is with a sense of amazement and appreciation that I am beginning to learn of the magnitude of the work of Catholic Charities in the Archdiocese of New York. Catholic Charities demonstrates so well the love of Jesus Christ for those in need of all religions.

I look forward to visiting Catholic Charities programs in New York City and the Hudson Valley, and meeting the dedicated staff and volunteers who truly make Catholic Charities the backbone of New York. I pledge to do my part to continue and enhance the compassionate care that Catholic Charities provides each year to hundreds of thousands of New Yorkers in need.

Be assured of my prayers and my thanks for your support.

Gratefully in Christ,

Most Reverend Timothy M. Dolan
Archbishop of New York

A Message from the Chairman of the Board of Trustees, John J. Phelan, Jr.

Dear Friends:

I feel privileged to work with Catholic Charities. It's as simple as that. In these challenging economic times, Catholic Charities responds as it has for nearly a century with determination and dedication, reaching out to provide a vast array of services for those in need.

Permit me to express my deep appreciation to His Eminence Edward Cardinal Egan for his generous support to Catholic Charities during his service as Archbishop of New York. And allow me to welcome the Most Reverend Timothy Dolan as our new archbishop.

I want to thank my fellow trustees and members of the Cardinal's Committee for Charity who make Catholic Charities a priority in their philanthropic efforts throughout the year. I would also like to stress the importance of and my appreciation to all who give generously of their time, talents and resources to enable Catholic Charities to provide help and create hope. More than 1,000 volunteer directors and trustees guide this federation of nearly 100 Catholic Charities agencies throughout the New York metropolitan area. Their expertise and oversight prove critical to the integrity, high quality and success of our agencies. Under the dedicated leadership of Monsignor Kevin Sullivan, committed staff and volunteers help solve the problems of New Yorkers in need—non-Catholics and Catholics alike.

My long association with Catholic Charities has only deepened my respect for all it does. This annual report provides an opportunity to extol the agency's work in transforming lives thanks to supporters like you. It describes needs as well as responses. It describes hardship as well as help, and anguish, as well as hope. It describes Catholic Charities, now more than ever, as an essential part of New York.

With warmest regards,

A Report to the Community from the Executive Director

Monsignor Kevin Sullivan

This past year, Catholic Charities confronted the onslaught of economic and fiscal disasters: fear and foreclosures, evictions and hunger, swelling unemployment and shrinking retirement funds. Through it all, Catholic Charities maintained its commitment to poor and vulnerable New Yorkers.

More people than ever ask how Catholic Charities helps and why they should support us. Paradoxically, the answer to what we do also answers why we need and merit support.

In this report, I highlight how Catholic Charities strengthens individuals and families and resolves crises. This is the answer to why your support is more vital than ever.

Protecting and Nurturing Children and Youth

Poverty, hunger, neglect and abuse darken the lives of far too many New York children. Over 875,000 children in New York grow up in families with incomes below the poverty level. The New York State Child Abuse hotline received more than 51,000 reports of abuse or neglect last year. One in three children grows up in a single parent household and about the same number live as “latchkey” children.

Catholic Charities responds to these sometimes overwhelming circumstances. More than one-third of New York City children in foster care live in safe homes under the auspices of Catholic Charities agencies. More than 3,000 families receive our support so their children can remain at home with their parents. Catholic Charities’ safe day care and after-school programs nurture children while parents struggle at work to provide for their families. Catholic Youth Organization, CYO, engages more than 20,000 youth in athletic, educational and spiritual opportunities that foster healthy growth. The skillful combination of volunteers, private contributions and public funding makes this extensive range of services one of the most cost-effective in New York.

Feeding the Hungry and Sheltering the Homeless

Catholic Charities stands in the forefront serving the swelling numbers of the newly poor. Foreclosure and eviction notices climbed by twenty percent last year. The homeless searching for food, shelter and work rose by another twenty percent. Hungry persons turning to food pantries surged by thirty percent. Some who previously donated now ask for a bag of food to tide them over.

Catholic Charities responded. Our extensive community-based network of fifty-three affiliated programs distributed more than 5,300,000 meals last year. Drawing on donor dollars and partnerships with other agencies, Catholic Charities prevented homelessness for 2,300 families before it occurred and worked tirelessly to ensure those families stayed housed.

Strengthening Families and Resolving Crises

Catholic Charities’ uniqueness is that we go far beyond merely giving food.

When an emergency strikes a family, we provide training, find jobs and housing and much more. As I write this, the number of unemployed jumped to nearly nine percent, triggering homelessness and family instability. Meanwhile, the stock market collapse left many, including our own siblings, parents and grandparents, with savings that dwindled to almost half.

To prevent emergencies from becoming catastrophes, our professionally trained Family Advocates help assess these setbacks, develop a concrete plan to deal with them and provide the support needed to resolve the crisis. They connect families to services that Catholic Charities and our partners offer New Yorkers in need.

Supporting the Physically and Emotionally Challenged

Our core belief values each person as made in God's image—regardless of his or her challenges. The senior adjusting to recent blindness, the developmentally disabled child and the emotionally challenged adult need intensive help to live with dignity. In New York, more 600,000 suffer from mental illness and 125,000 have various developmental disabilities.

Catholic Charities' specialized services offer early-intervention programs that nurture children to develop. We help the physically and emotionally disabled, sometimes for a lifetime. We provide decent housing and compassionate care when aging parents and caregivers no longer can provide for them. Pope Benedict XVI highlighted Catholic Charities with his moving visit and blessing of disabled children and their caregivers last spring at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers.

Welcoming and Integrating Immigrants and Refugees

Thousands of immigrants and refugees continue to make New York their first port of call in the United States. Newcomers come with their hopes and ethics of hard work. They need the basics to avoid exploitation and become integrated into their new home: accurate information, English language skills, housing and jobs.

Catholic Charities responds with an unparalleled range of assistance. Last year, we answered 43,000 calls for accurate information in twenty languages. We provided legal services and other counseling that enabled families to avoid exploitation, find legal work and learn English and civics. Catholic Charities literally saved the lives of twenty individuals by blocking their deportation to face probable torture and death in their own countries.

Stewarding the Mission of Providing Help and Creating Hope

Those in need—especially the most vulnerable—deserve the highest quality services. Catholic Charities has committed its resources to assist the boards of directors and executives of our network of agencies to enhance governance and accountability. In turn, private and public funders recognize Catholic Charities for delivering services with integrity and quality. The Philanthropic Advisory Service of the Better Business Bureau certifies Catholic Charities' adherence to its high standards.

During this period of economic anxiety, Catholic Charities occupies a singularly strategic position. We effectively bring together locally based agencies and parishes in every community and neighborhood, skilled staff and dedicated volunteers and private and public resources. Drawing on more than a century of experience, Catholic Charities provides help, creates hope and evolves in new and challenging circumstances to touch almost every human need always with compassion and dignity.

Archbishop Timothy M. Dolan and Msgr. Kevin Sullivan pitch in with the Catholic Charities Mobile Food Pantry at the Highbridge Community Life Center located in one of the poorest Congressional districts in the United States.

Protecting and Nurturing Children and Youth

Your generous donations enabled...

400	children to be adopted by loving families
6,400	children and teens to be placed in safe foster care
2,900	youth to participate in sound after-school programs
2,000	children to enjoy summer camps
4,650	children to grow and learn in day care
27,000	youth to play wholesome sports

Providing Help.

"I've raised my children to understand that it's not an obligation but a responsibility to help others a little less fortunate."

—Stanley E. Grayson, President & COO of M.R. Beal & Company and former NYC deputy mayor for finance, with his daughter Lauren A. Grayson

"Catholic Charities turns strangers into neighbors united in a common purpose—to make a difference."

—Lauren A. Grayson, Specialist to Merrill Lynch Counsel and Junior Board Member

Catholic Charities Big Sisters and Big Brothers helped foster the goals of Rayshell, 14, and her brother, Daniel, 18, and showed them a world outside their Harlem neighborhood. Daniel now studies to become a chef and Rayshell dreams of becoming a judge.

"If it weren't for them, I don't think I'd be here."

—Daniel

Creating Hope.

Some children cannot receive all the support they need in their own homes. Catholic Charities bolsters families, providing counseling, foster care, adoptions, day care and support. It helps struggling youth gain confidence and lasting values that serve them into adulthood. At Cardinal McCloskey School and Home for Children, youth facing challenges and mentally retarded/developmentally delayed adolescent and adult individuals receive subsidized group and family day care services, preventive and family rehabilitation services, foster boarding home and residential group care in the Bronx, Manhattan, Westchester and Rockland Counties.

Generosity Takes Many Forms

Catholic Charities Philanthropy

Generosity of individuals, corporations and foundations enables Catholic Charities to serve the needy in this environment of increasing demand. Catholic Charities gratefully acknowledges this generosity and, in particular, the volunteer leadership of its fundraising efforts.

The New York Times Foundation

For nearly a century, The New York Times Foundation has supported the work of Catholic Charities, providing significant funding and publicity by profiling in its annual Neediest Cases Campaign people helped by our federation.

Cardinal's Committee For Charity (CCC)

The Cardinal's Committee for Charity is a membership of caring leaders of the New York business community who support Catholic Charities at the request of the Most Reverend Archbishop Timothy M. Dolan. Members provide financial resources and counsel to help solve the problems of New Yorkers in need without regard for race, ethnicity, religion or ability to pay. Similarly, the diverse membership of this committee reflects the breadth and depth of New York and the businesses located here. This wide circle of committed New Yorkers ensures the long-term future of the business community's tradition of philanthropy and concern.

CCC business divisions include Finance, Hospitality and Tourism, Real Estate, Accounting and Lawyers and its newly formed Junior Board. Its emerging Hispanic division recognizes the contributions and needs of the nation's largest minority population.

Junior Board

Formally established in February 2008, the Junior Board offers volunteer and philanthropic opportunities to a new generation of caring New Yorkers. Over 200 members engage in social events, networking and volunteer activities that support Catholic Charities in serving those in need in our community.

The generosity of CCC members enables tens of thousands of individuals and families to live in greater dignity through the compassionate help of Catholic Charities.

Generosity Takes Many Forms

Supporting Catholic Charities' response to nearly every human need takes many forms: cash gifts, gifts of marketable securities, planned gifts, gifts of retirement plan assets, gifts of life insurance and real estate and volunteering time and talents.

Chorus of Angels Giving Club

Individuals interested in supporting the work of Catholic Charities can make their annual giving easier by joining the Chorus of Angels Giving Club. Donors become Angels by making gifts through automatic monthly credit card payments.

St. Nicholas Project

The St. Nicholas Project carries on the tradition of generosity and charity characteristic of St. Nicholas, the third century Bishop of Myra. While associated with Christmas, St. Nicholas serves the poor throughout the year. Similarly, Catholic Charities helps those in need year round. At Christmas time, donors from our Adopt-A-Family program and volunteers foster a blessed holiday by partnering with Kmart, UPS, and others to provide coats, gloves, blankets and toys to more than 3,200 individuals.

Wills and Bequests

Catholic Charities welcomes and is grateful to friends and partners whose legacies live on through their compassion and generosity. Charitable bequests should specify that they are for The Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York.

Catholic Charities lost a dear friend on October 8, 2008, with the sudden passing of Marjory Brody Smith, wife of Catholic Charities Board member Michael P. Smith, President of the New York Bankers Association. In her memory, Mr. Smith established the Marjory Brody Smith Fund at Catholic Charities.

Foundations

The Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York gives thanks to foundations whose investments in Catholic Charities enable us to provide help and create hope for New Yorkers in need.

Catholic Charities also gratefully recognizes the generous gift made in memory of Domenica Amelia Arra Carrella, deceased wife of Pasquale Carrella, by the Domenica Amelia Arra Carrella Charitable Trust.

Business Leaders

KPMG, LLP has long served as a lead supporter of Catholic Charities and its many initiatives. Spearheaded by Robert P. Garrett, the KPMG Annual Campaign for the Cardinal's Committee for Charity this year prompted significant donations from more than 100 KPMG partners and matching funds from the KPMG Foundation.

Special Events

Special events occur throughout the year to support Catholic Charities' varied programs and efforts. Individuals, corporations, foundations and the Cardinal's Committee for Charity undergird these events, enabling Catholic Charities to raise additional funds. Events also enhance community outreach and understanding of services we provide.

The Club of Champions Tribute Dinner raises money to support the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO), serving tens of thousands of young people each year through athletic, social, spiritual and cultural activities and services. Funds raised at this annual dinner provide critical resources for our inner-city community centers, parish-based athletic programs, summer camp for disabled and minority youth, teen leadership and youth ministry programs.

Cardinal's Golf Classic annually raises funds to support Catholic Charities' work and mission.

Cardinal's Committee for Charity Hospitality and Tourism Reception jointly supported by hospitality and tourism labor and management celebrates the broad ethnic range of Catholic Charities and the community we serve in this national and international tourist destination.

Cardinal's Committee for Charity Wall Street Breakfast held annually in the New York Stock Exchange Board Room raises funds and heightens Catholic Charities' visibility among leaders in New York City's corporate, banking and business-finance sectors.

Cardinal's Christmas Luncheon in conjunction with the Ladies of Charity annually raises funds to benefit women and children served by agencies and programs affiliated with Catholic Charities.

Feeding the Hungry and Sheltering the Homeless

Your generous donations enabled...

5,300,000	nutritious meals to be served in parish and community food programs
3,300	families to receive intervention to avoid homelessness
2,000	individuals to live in temporary and transitional apartments
1,500	individuals to sleep in emergency overnight shelters
2,500	families to live in affordable housing

Providing Help.

"When you help people who are just desperate, when you see them and they come and hug you and cry in your arms, I don't know if there's a better feeling. Working with Catholic Charities has just been everything you could have hoped for. Everybody should realize that when you put your money there, it's going to go where you want it to go."

—Rusty Staub, Retired Major League Baseball Player

A former broadcast journalist, Elvira lost her career and home when she suffered a massive stroke at the age of 31.

"Hope is a big word when you have nothing. Catholic Charities unlocked the door and gave me hope. They're my family now."

—Elvira

Creating Hope.

Children hungry at night and in the morning, seniors too frail to care for themselves and homeless men sleeping in doorways find shelter, sustenance and compassion at Catholic Charities emergency shelters, food pantries, soup kitchens and temporary and traditional residences. Catholic Charities understands the need to protect and create housing that families can afford.

The Association of New York Catholic Homes protects affordable housing sponsored by the New York Archdiocese. It preserved more than 2,000 housing units owned by twelve Archdiocesan-sponsored housing corporations and will build new affordable housing units on Archdiocesan and Parish-owned properties.

Strengthening Families and Resolving Crises

Your generous donations enabled...

3,300	families to receive the support they needed to stay together
4,300	individuals to receive emergency financial assistance
26,000	individuals to receive critically needed social services
20,300	individuals to receive needed counseling
5,000	individuals to receive job training and placement
2,200	women to receive essential support during unplanned pregnancies

Providing Help.

"We personally experienced having a loved one go through illness and we understand the emotional and financial stress it causes. We help because we are inspired by the support we received."

—Michelle Javian and Yuki Yuki Kotani,
Donors and Co-Founders of Harboring Hearts Foundation

Leslie, a single mother, had to give up her job to care full-time for her medically fragile four-year-old twins, Johan and Tariq. Catholic Charities helped bolster the family as each boy underwent heart transplants.

"I believe this is a happily-ever-after story. I want families to know not to give up these gifts."

—Leslie

Creating Hope.

Families confronted and confused by crises know they can turn to Catholic Charities for help. A working mom searching for affordable day care; a laid-off father trying to re-enter the job market; a young woman coping with an unplanned pregnancy can face a maze of emotions and difficulty accessing help. Catholic Charities and affiliated agencies programs are designed with flexibility to quickly respond to their needs. At Casita Maria, the first charitable organization to serve the Hispanic Community in New York City, individuals and families in crisis receive a variety of services and can participate in its Bronx after-school program and its community support program for homebound seniors in East Harlem.

Catholic Charities Federation of Agencies

The following agencies provide a wide range of human services under various auspices throughout the Archdiocese of New York.

Religious communities sponsor some. Others have grown from parish communities of faith. Still others were founded by charismatic clergy, religious or lay leaders. Together they form The Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York, a federation of administered, sponsored and affiliated agencies touching almost every human need.

Providing Help.

"When charity became an integral part of my life, I felt God's love many times over."

—Florence D'Urso, International Philanthropist and Catholic Charities Benefactor

At Catholic Charities Guild for the Blind, Ernest, 60, learned to compensate for the glaucoma that stole his sight. He received tutoring for his high school equivalency degree to pursue his ultimate goal, divinity school to become an ordained minister.

"Catholic Charities gave me the assistance I needed to get where I want to go."

—Ernest

Creating Hope.

The senior adjusting to recent blindness, the developmentally disabled child, and the emotionally challenged adult need intensive attention and support. Catholic Charities cares compassionately for the most vulnerable New Yorkers—non-Catholics and Catholics alike—through its network of specialized services.

For example, at Kennedy Child Study Center, children with developmental delays and related disabilities and their families receive a continuum of services including comprehensive evaluation, assessment, early intervention and educational and therapeutic services. They and their families also receive counseling and other supportive services so they can live with safety and dignity.

Catholic Charities Fiscal Report

Condensed Financial Statement⁽¹⁾

The Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York provides certain direct community services in addition to coordinating and supporting a federation of affiliated agencies. This condensed financial statement reflects the fiscal activity related to these direct community services and the coordination and support of the federation of agencies. An overview of the fiscal information for the federation of Catholic Charities agencies is presented on the following page.

Pledge of Good Stewardship and Accountability

Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York is committed to the highest standards of good stewardship and accountability. The Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of New York is separately incorporated according to the not-for-profit laws of New York State with its own active Board of Trustees.

An independent public accounting firm overseen by the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees conducts an annual audit of Catholic Charities finances. Funds received by Catholic Charities are carefully monitored to ensure their use complies with donor intent. Funds are maintained in separate accounts and do not co-mingle with those of the Archdiocese of New York.

Catholic Charities' policies and procedures have been reviewed and meet the standards of the charitable accountability of the Better Business Bureau's Philanthropic Advisory Service. Catholic Charities complies with all Federal, State, and Local laws regarding discrimination.

Services Touching Almost Every Human Need

Provided by a federation of more than ninety Catholic Charities agencies in New York City and the Lower Hudson Valley.

Over 375,000 served—$577 million in services

Points to Note:

Administrative expenses are kept very low. On average Catholic Charities agencies of the Archdiocese of New York spend eighty-eight cents of each dollar on program expenses.

While many services are provided through government partnerships, substantial private philanthropy is necessary to sustain the range and quality of services offered by Catholic Charities agencies.

The size of the individual segments of the chart represents a weighted average of the number of people served and expenditures to more accurately reflect the proportion of services provided in each category. Some services, primarily residential, are very intensive requiring higher expenditures to serve a smaller number of individuals with special needs. Other categories, such as information and referral and emergency meals, serve more people at a lower cost per person.

■ Protecting and Nurturing Children and Youth (49,500 served, $260 million in services): Services include: day care, foster care, adoption, camping, sports and after-school activities, community centers and preventative services.

■ Feeding the Hungry and Sheltering the Homeless (107,400 served, $65 million in services): Services include: emergency meals, emergency shelters, temporary and transitional residences, permanent affordable housing and preventing evictions.

■ Strengthening Families and Resolving Crises (157,000 served, $67 million in services): Services include: information and referral, coordinating services, counseling, financial assistance, maternity services and job readiness and placement.

■ Supporting the Physically and Emotionally Challenged (15,000 served, $172 million in services): Services include: supportive housing for the mentally ill, counseling, residences for those with special needs and disabilities and early intervention and special education.

■ Welcoming and Integrating Immigrants and Refugees (48,000 served, $13 million in services): Services include: reuniting families, teaching English and civics, obtaining work authorization and finding jobs and preventing exploitation.

Welcoming and Integrating Immigrants and Refugees

Your generous donations enabled...

2,546	families to receive expert counsel to avoid exploitation
43,301	callers to receive prompt, accurate information in 18 languages
233	breadwinners to obtain authorization to work
355	immigrants to reunite with their families
20	asylum seekers to receive legal representation

Providing Help.

"Much is expected of those to whom much is given and especially now when so many are doing without the necessities of life."

—Mary Higgins Clark, Author

After escaping torture and death threats, Catholic school teacher Patrice fled Cameroon and sought asylum in New York. Catholic Charities immigration services integrated him into his new home, offering help to secure food, clothing, shelter and, most important, a job with a future.

"Catholic Charities helped me stay alive."

—Patrice

Creating Hope.

Designed for the unique needs of new arrivals, Catholic Charities provides specialized services that help immigrants reunite legally with their families, obtain work authorization, learn English and civics, prepare for citizenship exams and avoid exploitation by unscrupulous practitioners and business owners. Community residents receive in-person consultations from Catholic Charities' highly qualified immigration lawyers and practitioners. At St. Rita's Center for Immigrant and Refugee Services, part of the Tolentine-Zeiser Community Life Center, Inc. in the Bronx, more than 2,500 adults and children take English-as-a-Second-Language classes and participate in ongoing educational and supportive services. This critical help empowers them to reach their full human potential and be agents of change in their families and communities.

Apostolic Journey of Hope

Pope Benedict XVI

"While some people's contributions seem great and others' more modest, the witness value of our efforts is always a sign of hope for everyone..."

Brought together by Catholic Charities, fifty-six disabled youth and their caregivers received the blessing of Pope Benedict XVI. His blessing, offered at the chapel of St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers, marked the Pope's most intimate public event during his first visit to the United States. His words provide inspiration for all.

God's unconditional love, which bathes every human individual, points to a meaning and purpose for all human life. Through his cross, Jesus in fact draws us into his saving love and in so doing shows us the way ahead—the way of hope which transfigures us all, so that we too become bearers of that hope and charity for others."

"God has blessed you with life and with differing talents and gifts. Through these you are able to serve him and society in various ways. While some people's contributions seem great and others' more modest, the witness value of our efforts is always a sign of hope for everyone..."
